A little boy was sitting in church, swinging his legs and whispering questions to him mom. "Why does the priest wear those special clothes?" he asked. "So people know he's serving God," she whispered back. A few minutes later, the boy looked up at the crucifix and asked, "Why is Jesus up there?" His mom gently replied, "Because He loves us so much." The boy thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Well...I guess if He loves us that much, we should probably pay attention!" Sometimes the simplest faith is the strongest reminder: God's love is real – and worth noticing.
