After Easter Mass, a priest stood at the door greeting everyone as they left. A little boy shook his hand and said, "Father, I know what you should give up for next Lent." The priest smiled. "Oh really? What's that?" The boy leaned in and whispered, "Your homily - it's way to long." The priest chuckled, a bit surprised. "That's good advice! But tell me – why didn't you say that before Easter?" The boy shrugged and said, "Because...today we celebrate that Jesus rose...not that He sat back down again!"

May the peace and joy of the Risen Lord fill your hearts and homes this Easter season, and may His love shine through you to all you meet. Blessed Easter! Father Roland
