ALBERTON COMMUNITY SCHOOL
"Looking for people to share their talents and skills at Alberton Community School. Monday nights for 10 weeks at the Alberton Elementary school from January to March 2027. Cultural sharing or craftsmanship to share with others? Share your musical talent? Is there something trending that you would like to share? I can promise that you will get as much reward from leading as the adult participants will. A great night out once a week during a harsh winter. Contact Kelly Gillis at 853-3885 or at the Alberton Library.

Never underestimate the power of a kind word, a caring heart, and a small act of kindness to make someone's day brighter.

Two boys were arguing when the teacher entered the room. The teacher says, "Why are you arguing?" One boy answer's, "We found a ten-dollar bill and decided to give it to whoever tells the biggest lie." "You should be ashamed of yourselves," said the teacher, "When I was your age, I didn't even know what a lie was." The boys gave the ten dollars to the teacher.

Nobody has it easy. Everybody has issues. Life happens. You never know what people are going through. So, pause before you start judging, mocking, or criticizing others. Everybody is fighting their own war.

PASTOR'S CORNER
The One Who Gives us Jesus
Dear people of God. Peace be with you! Thank you for the Vocations Prayer we say in every mass, especially vocations to the Priesthood. Who is the one who prepares the Holy Eucharist for us and gives Our Lord to us? It is the priest. If there were no priests, there would be no Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, nor Holy Communion, nor the Real Presence of Jesus in the tabernacle. And who is the priest? He is the "man of God" (2Tim. 3:17). It is God alone who chooses him and calls him from among men for a very special task. "No man takes the honor to himself; he takes it who is called by God, as Aaron was"(HEB. 5:4).God sets him apart from everyone else "to preach the Gospel of God" (ROM.1:1). God signs him with a sacred character that will endure forever, making him "a priest forever" (HEB 5:6) and bestowing on him the supernatural powers of the ministerial priesthood so that he is consecrated exclusively for the things of God. The priest, being "taken from among men, is ordained for Menin the things that appertain to God, that he may offer up gifts and sacrifices for sins" (HEB. 5:1-2).
By his ordination the priest is consecrated soul and body. He becomes a being totally sacred, likened to the Divine Priest, Jesus. The priest is thereby a true extension of Jesus, sharing in Jesus' vocation and mission. He fills Jesus' role in the most important works of universal redemption, namely, divine worship and the spread of the Gospel. Let us while we pray for vocations offer our children by name to Jesus for his work of salvation in the world. No human being can beat the hand of a priest in this life. Also speak kindly about the priesthood to our children and tell them how you wish any one or all of them could become Priest. You lose nothing when your son becomes a priest but stand to gain everything finally for the family and for God's people. Amen

PRAYER FOR ALL SAINTS' DAY
Heavenly Father, we thank You for all the saints in heaven who have shown us the way of faith, hope, and love. May their example inspire us to live with kindness, compassion, and generosity toward others. Help us to follow their footsteps, grow closer to You each day, and one day share in the joy of eternal life with You in heaven.
